PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Carson Futch is a Senior Advisor at SVN | Saunders Ralston Dantzler Real Estate in Thomasville, Georgia.

While located in Northeast Georgia, Carson holds a Broker Associate license in both Florida and Georgia. He is a 6th-generation Floridian, a Plant City native, and grew up on a working ranch and citrus operation. During the 41 years of his career, Carson has been an owner and manager of different businesses involved in real estate sales, development, production, agriculture, harvesting, marketing, and agritourism. While at SVN | Saunders Ralston Dantzler, Carson has accumulated over $50 million in sales since 2015, representing 6200+ acres. He has represented buyers and sellers of plant nursery operations, cattle ranches, hunting and recreational properties, as well as citrus groves and nurseries. Carson has also worked on many transactions involving the conversion of groves and ranches into solar farms, strawberry, vegetable, and tree farms, fish farms, commercial properties, and medical marijuana facilities. In 2018, Carson was appointed to serve on the UF/IFAS Industrial Hemp Pilot Project Advisory Committee. In this role, he helped to assess and recommend guidelines for growing, manufacturing, and processing a variety of hemp production across Florida as a new agricultural industry.

Additionally, Carson is a member of the Georgia Mountain Lakes Association. He is also an active volunteer who has served on various councils and committees for his church, community, and the agricultural industry. He is a past president of the Rotary Club of Plant City, Florida where he was a member for 28 years.
